HATRED TO THE DEAD.

The Washington National Republican pub lishes the following official announcement :

"Resolved, That we, the members of the executive committee of the Grand Army of the Republic, do hereby give notice that the 30th of May being set apart by the Grand Army of the Republic as a memorial day to their comrades who died in defence of their. country, and the grounds at Arlington and other national ceméteries being opened on that special day by order of the Quartermaster-General of the Army to the Grand Army of the Republic for the purpose of strewing flowers upon and decorating the graves of the deceased Union soldiers,' any attempt by the friends of the rebel dead to strew flowers on their graves will be regarded as an interference with the programme of the day, and will not be tolerated.

The inborn spirit of hatred, to the South, the dead as well as the living, - which is inimical to the puritanical spirits of New England and other portions of the North, crops out on all occasions. Not that the whole people of the North, as a mass, coincide with the views of the devilish leaders of sectional fanaticism, but there are those in the North, it fires of party hatred and malice to slumber ffor one moment-aye, not even permit the Southern dead to slumber peacefully in their graves, if that were possible. But thanks be unto an all-wise Providence, the blood hounds may howl and rant, and the "Grand (?) Army of the Republic" issue its manifestoes by the thousand, and whilst they may attempt to insult the living Southerner by their disrespect for the Southern dead ; yet all their scoffs and scorn can never harm that little band of heroes who "sleep their last sleep" beside the Northern dead, on the heights of Arlington. And when, way down the ages of futurity, the names of Butler and such ilk shall be remembered only in infamy and disgrace, those of Lee, Jackson and Albert Sydney Johnston will live emblazened high up on the scroll of fame, as patriots and heroes, who, when living, held malice toward none, and who, though dead, will ever live, not only in the hearts of their countrymen, but on the records of impartial history in all future ages. But to revert to the extract published above, it is well that whilst that secret military-politico organization, the "Grand Army of the Republic," may be controlled by vengeful and malicious spirits, yet there are those in the North, and many of them we trust, who have the charity to breathe such sentiments as those expressed by the lamented Chief Justice Chase, and in striking contrast to the edict of the G. A. R., we append the following utterance of that eminent jurist :

"I have no sympathy with the spirit which refuses to strew flowers upon the graves of the dead soldiers who fought against the side I

THE PENITENTIARY TROUBLE.

The Moorefield Advertiser, referring to the prospective adjudication of the recent penis tentiary trouble by the Supreme Court of Appeals, well says:

"We are heartily glad of this. The trouble can only be allayed by a decision of the highest tribunal in the State. We feel well satisfied that when the Court of Appeals construes the Constitution in this regard, both parties to this controversy will yield a willing and hasty obedience thereto, and this is the way all such troubles should be settled. Our State is too young to engage in the broils and turmoils so frequent of late in some others .-We have too much at stake to run any such risks. We regret very much the little excitement the Moundsville difficulty created. We think the Governor could have raised the question for the courts in some other less revolutionary manner. But if the question at issue has been fairly and squarely raised for the courts, we can forgive him for it in order that it may be settled. We despise wrangling and quarreling. It has a bad effect upon the best interest of the State and people .-When this question is settled no one will rejoice more than we will.

PRESIDENTS PROCLAMATION.

President Grant, says the Baltimore Gazette, has determined that the usurpation of the Government by Kellogg, in Louisiana, shall be maintained by military force. Sheltering himself hehind the plea that Congress tacitly recognized Kellogg and the officers associated with him in the State Administration, he has responded to the call of Kellogg for assistance. Assuming that "certain turbulent and disorderly persons have combined together with force and arms to resist the constituted authorities of the State," he has issued a proclamation commanding them to disperse and retire to their homes within twenty days from date, and ordering them hereafter to submit to the laws and to the rule of officials whose only claims to recognition are the illegal decree of a drunken judge, and the support which President Grant unjustly accords them.

SHEN. VAL. RAIEROAD.

The Stockbolders of the S. V. R. R. met pursuant to notice at Front Royal, Va. on the 21st inst, and organized by electing Wm. Milnes, 3Tr., Chaiaman, and T. N. Ashby, Secretary. The reports of T. A. Scott, President, and George Barrett, Chief Engineer, were read and ordered to be printed. By a vote of the meeting, W. H. Travers, Esq., was appointed to east the vote of the Stockholders for T. A. Scott as President, there being no other name in nomination. B. F. Grayson, Esq., proxy of Page county, asked leave to make a personal explanation, he said his action in relation to this subject has been notoriously misrepresented, that his personal feelings have been and are most favorable to the S. V. R. R., yet the responsibility of his position forces upon him the duty of guarding the interests of the people he represents, and gave as a reason for not assenting to the giving of his vote to another and for his declining to vote, that in his judgement, the subscription of the Central Improvement Company is illegal and fraudulent. The resolution was reconsidered and the election of a President and Directors was proceeded with in the usual manner, resulting in the selection of T. A. Scott President, and the old Board, excepting T. B. Kennedy and Wm. McClellan, of Chambersburg, Pa., taking the place of Messrs. McDonald and Bardwell. B. F. Grayson offered his written protest and desired the same to be entered on the records of the company, to give the people of his county the opportunity of taking such action in the future as may by them be deemed advisable to protect their interests. U. L. Boyce, of Clarke, objected, and in supporting his objection made a spirited reply to Mr. Grayson, in which were given many of his forcible, if not elegant illustrations, rather severe on the incipient management of the affairs of the company and its officers. P. B. Borst, Esq., former President of the Company, rose to say that evidently Mr. Boyce had not examined the features of the original contract between the S. V. R. R. and the C. I. Co. to build the road, and explained in detail the differences between the first, second and third contracts, seems, who are determined never to allow the he disclaimed any personal feeling in the matter, yielding all that to the controling desire to see the speedy completion of the road .-H. B. Davenport, Esq., proxy of Jefferson county, asked to be informed as to the rapid increase of the number of votes cast in the > company he must insist upon his protest being recorded. It was ordered to be recorded .-Maj. J. Richardson, proxy of Clarke county, entered his protest, which was admitted .-The meeting adjourned. A meeting of the new Board of Directors and McClellan. No matters of importance were transacted except the appointment of the standing committees, &c. From reliable information before them, the Board felt and expressed the confidence that the road would be completed to the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad by the time fixed in the contract for construction-the first day of October, 1874.

Allen Simpson was appointed Treasurer in his place, and the Board authorized him to draw on the Treasury of the State for ten thousand dollars, a portion of the appropriation made by the Legislature for the Hospital, and he was instructed if his draft was not honored to take legal steps at once to compel the payment of the money.

Col. WM. P. CRAIGHILL.-The Philadelphia Ledger, in sketching the gentlemen designated to constitute the "Horse Shoe Shoals" engineer board, to improve the navigation of Delaware river, says of Col. Wm. P. Craighill, who has been appointed as the Chief Engineer of the proposed James Rives & Kanawha Canal improvement :

Brevet Lieutenant Colonel William P Craighill, a native of Virginia, graduated at West Point July 1, 1853. During the ensuing eight years he was employed in repairing the forts and defences at various points of the Atlantic coast, being, in 1858, superintending engineer in building Fort Delaware. He next filled, in succession, several professorships at West Point, and was in command of the engineer soldiers at that institution. For a short time during the war he was in the field and was brevetted Lieutenant Colonel for faithful and meritorious services in the defence of Cumberland Gap. He was also brevetted Colonel for services during the rebellion, but declined to accept that rank. He was appointed Major in the Corps of Engineers November 23d, 1865, and for two years was Engineer of the defences of Baltimore and the Susquehanna river. He was then appointed assistant to the Chief Engineers, in charge of the Fourth Division Bureau of Engineers.

FINISHED HIS CONTRACT-Mr. H. H. Crumlish, of Delaware, who had a contract for the graduation and masoury of ten miles of the Shen. Valley R. R., completed his work last week, and handed in his final estimates. We understand it is one of the best finished jobs on the line thus far graded .-On last Monday morning his cart teams took their departure from this place, for Page county, where Mr. Crumlish has another contract for two miles of road, - Clurke Courier.

THE BROIL IN LOUISIANA.

The following from the Wheeling -Intelligencer, the leading Republican paper in this State, needs no additional comment to give a fair showing of the status of the Louisiana difficulties. Let the Republican papers which have not the manliness and independence to place their mark of condemnation upon such atrocities as have been perpetrated upon the people of Louisiana, read and ponder: The news from Louisiana 'indicates a letting down of the belligerent McEneryites before the approach of the United States military. They must give way, of course, because Kellogg is to be sustained by all the power of the Government, if need be; and the only question with the resistants is to what exremity they will carry their resistance to his It is greatly to be regretted—it is a pity for the people of Louisiana for the Adninistration, for the Republican party and for the cause of good government and good feels ng there and in other States-that the power f the Federal Government has been used to set up Kellogg and his coadjutors as a government over the people of Louisiana, and that the same power is to maintain them there. The Kellogg government, so-called, is a bold usurpation. We regret that it cannot truthfully be called anything else. If we may believe the report of the Republican committee of the U.S. Senate, sent to Louisiana last winter to investigate affairs there. Kellogg, his officers and his Legislature have no more rightful authority in Louisiana than we have They never were elected by the people at all. The declaration that they had been was made by an illegal board with not a single election return before it. They put in possession of the State House by the lawless decree of a Federal Judge acting in disregard of law and by the army of the United States enforcing this Judge's decrees. Being thus installed by violence and arbitrary power, they have unhappily been sustained in their usurpation by the President with the constant presence of the United States troops. The McEnery government was not elected fairly. Warnouth, having all the election machinery in his hands used it to favor McEnery by making the registering and voting places so inconvenient that large numbers of negroes did not take the trouble to register or vote. But there was no violence and no actual fraud so far as appears. The McEnery government has at least the color of legality; the Kellogg concern does not appear to have even this .-These are the hard, naked facts as they appear from the report of the Senate Committee.

If Congress had done what the committee ecommended, viz : set aside the election, ordered a new one and provided for a fair one it can hardly be doubted that Louisiana would now be at peace. * * * * * * * * *

Yet the failure of Congress to perform this duty cannot be held to justify the President name of the C. I. Co., and, to refer the matter in using the force of the Government to comto the County Court for further instructions, he pel the people of a State to submit to an aurequested that his protest be received by the thority set up over them by violence, without their consent, and the deplorable mischiefs that have followed that misuse of power are apparent now in the daily report of anarchy Boyce that if the C. I. Co. purpose to make a and bloodshed that comes up from 'that unvalid subscription legally binding them to happy and misgoverened State. If Louisiana had not been a reconstructed State, formerly restored to full relations with the Union, and over five million dollars, whether they go on of right so exempt from arbitrary Federal inwith the work or abandon it at any stage of terference as any other State in the Union, its progress, no objection to such subscription there might be some excuse for what the shall come from his county, but that until he President and his subordinates at New Orcan see that kind of a subscription by that feans have done. But the misfortune is that no adequate reason for this interferance can be shown, and the only one that appears is a supposed exigency of mere party organiza-Nothing more vital than this was at stake; and the public sense of justice and of propriety does not justify the employment of such means for such ends; while it is almost certain that the course taken will in the end was held on the evening of the 21st inst., at harm the Republican party much more than 72 o'clock, all present except Messrs. Kennedy | it has helped it. The Republican party cannot be used with impunity, much less can the military power of the Government, merely to promote the ascendency of a faction in one of the States because that faction is in sympathy with the party in control of the Government, and its leaders can be useful to the administration. Such an assumption is too dangerous to be 'tolerated for a moment. Yet this is just about the state of the case in Louisiana. Under such circumstances those journals which never allow themselves to censure the wrong doing of their friends are reticent; but the truth is this Louisiana broil is disgraceful to the administration and dangerous to the peace and good feeling of the people in Louisiana, and in other States; and the truth ought to be so plainly spoken that by no possibility could the error in this case ever be used as a precedent for a like employment of arbitrary power elsewhere. The army must now be used to preserve the public peace, but it ought to be used for no other end. Let the bayonets that uphold the Kellogg usurpation be withdrawn from that employment, and let the factions fight on equal terms till Congress decides between them, the military being used only to preserve order and prevent blood-

LAYING THE RAILS .- In a conversation we had the other day with Col. Collins, of the Central Improvement Company, he told us that the work of placing the ties and laying the rails on the Shen. Valley R. R. would be commenced about the first of next September. and that the track would be in running order about the first of October-in time to compete with the Balt. & Ohio R. R. for transporting our products to market. He also informed us that the line of the road between Luray at Staunton would soon be left for graduation and masonry, and that everything promised an early completion of the road .- Clarke Courier.

NARROW ESCAPE. - One day last week; as Mr. J. T. Griffith and wife, of this place, were riding in the direction of Summit Point, a bolt connecting the tongue with the carriage gave way, precipitating the tongue and fixtures upon the heels of the horses, which so frightened them that Mr. G. was compelled to run them against a fence in order to check them. In doing this the carriage struck against a stump and was upset and badly broken; and although the occupants were thrown out, they received only a few slight bruises .- Clarke Courier.

THE MODOC WAR.

WASHINGTON, May 23 .- The following ras received here to-night : San Francisco, May 23 .- "To General herman, Washington: Colonel Davis reports that about half the Modoce, Being whipped and hard pressed by Hasbrouck, have surrendered unconditionally. Davis says he will push the pursuit of Captain Jack and party, and hopes to end the war soon.

Proposal to End the Modoc War.

One of the happiest incidents connected with the visit of the Board of Regents of Mount Vernon to that place, on Wednesday last, was the interview betwhen a young and gallant ex-Confenerate cavalry offie, who had won his first distinction as an Indian fighter. and Miss Nellie Grant. The ex-Confederate, having accidentally met an old friend among the lady visitors, was introduced by her to her daughter, and also, and to his great surprise. when he heard her name, to her daughter's friend, the daughter of the President; but. being as courteous as he is brave, he strove to render himself agreeable to his distinguished acquaintance, and by his affability and genial southern manners was so successful that in a short time the reserve of new acquaintanceship was worn off, and they were talking together as familiarly as if they had known each other for years. On their return he was particularly attentive, pointing out to her rom the deck of the steamer the several objects of interest along the banks of the Potomac and narrating the legends attached to them; and as the boat neared this city he expressed his regret at not being able to escort her to her home, saying he would certainly get that honor were it not that he must meet a near and dear relative, an invalid lady, who was expected to arrive here that evening .-Then taking the hand she proffered him as he arose to leave her he said with a smile, Please bear my regards to the President. and be kind enough to tell him that if he'll only furnish the necessary rations and transportation Fil take a squadron of the Black Horse cavalry and promise to end the Modoc war and make him a present of Captain Jack, dressed in General Canby's uniform, within thirty days," and, lifting his hat, bowed himself towards the companion-way, down which he disappeared, she having laughingly remarked as he bade her adieu. "Well, sir, I must say vou are the most impudent man ever met."- Alexandria Gazette.

FROM NOTTOWAY COUNTY, VA .- Below we insert a communication sent us by an estimable citizen of Nottoway county, Va. Mrs. Clara Booth, mentioned therein, is a daughter of John A. Thomson, Esq., of this county : BLACKS & WHITES, Nottoway Co., Va., 7

To the Editor of the Spirit of Jefferson:
MR. EDITOR:—Trusting that your readers may be interested in Church work everywhere-and that you will receive with pleasure some account of the activity of our people in this matter-especially as your county has given to us one of our most zealous workers, in the present matter, we beg leave to present the following little summary for our consideration:

On Wednesday, the 14th proximo, the members and friends of St Lukes (Episcopal) Church, in this county, gave a public entertainment, the proceeds of which are to go towards the repairs of this church. The entertainment of the day began with a lecture, delivered by Judge F. R. Farrar, of Amelia -subject, "Rip Van Winkle" or "The Man whio Slept Ten Years," which, was followed by a Feast-and in the afternoon by a second lecture entitled "Johnny Reb"-recalling many amusing anecdotes and recollections of the late war. The entertainment was closed . by a musical Concert and Tableaux. The music was placed 'under the charge of Mrs. Clara Booth, nee Miss Thomson, that accomplished performer whom her friends in Jefferson are still proud to recollect, and our pecple rejoice to be permitted to appreciate.-She was assisted by Miss Fannie Booth, her sister-in-law, and also a very accomplished musician. Her husband, Dr. E. S. Booth, was the chief manager of the whole affair, and was most strenuous and energetic in performing his part in the whole matter. He also assisted the 'music; there were several other ladies who assisted Mrs. Booth: Miss Parker, Miss Hutter, Miss Scott, Miss Mason, &c., (we will not mention all) who received tributes of beautiful bouquets in testimony of appreciation. The first piece performed was Charming May," a delightful piece of music and very appropriate to the season. The tableaux were shown in connection with the Concert, and manifested a great deal of skill. and careful preparation. These were under the chief management of Miss Ada Silliam, who shewed great taste and zeal, and was assisted by several who did their parts well .-Mr. V. Farinholt exerted himself very much in their behalf, and did much to further their success. The scenes were very beautiful, and were often cheored. One scene, the "Peri at the Gate of Eden," was particularly beautiful. There were several others, each showing taste

There was a large amount realized, and we hope it will be enough to meet all the needful expenses, in repairing the church. We hope there may be brighter times in store for us when we shall not need such means, and that our little church may remain under the blessing of God an instrument of blessing to our people, and that within its walls many souls may be won for Christ.

AS On Wednesday night last, a freight train on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, went over the bank, a short distance west of South Branch bridge, making a complete wreck of the major portion of the cars. The engine was also considerably damaged.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT .- Last week a colored boy by the name of Thomas Barnes, whilst standing in the midst of a group of his colored brethren, on Mr. Griffith's corner, accidentally discharged a loaded shot gun, a portion of the contents of which entered the foot of Monroe Wright, colored, inflicting a wound that has temporarily crippled him. THE CLASSIS OF VIRGINIA OF THE RE-CORMED CHURCH .- This body held its thirtyhird anual meeting in the Reformed Church f this place. The session commenced on Wednesday evening, the 14th instant, at 74 clock, and were continued until Saturday at 10 o'clock, A. First Case Under the New Liquor Law.

10th inst., we copy the following: The first case under the new liquor law was ried on Wednesday before W. P. Rathbone, Justice of the Peace, in this city. Edward, Coleman was arrested on the complaint of Mrs. William McCaffrey for selling whiskey to her minor son, aged 19. The mother, by a young daughter, forbade Coleman from selling liquor to her son, and when the young man applied for it, the seller informed him that he had been forbidden by his mother from letting him have any; but notwithstang he might have some if he would promise not get drunk. The outraged mother appealed the law, and upon a full investigation, Justice Rathbone found him guilty and sentenced him to pay a fine of $100 and be imprisoned in the county fail for ten days. Coleman appealed from the sentence, and although the Justice doubted his authority to allow it, he nevertheless granted the appeal. It will probably be made a test case, and the proceedings in the County Court, which meets on Monday next, and where Jacob Jackson, Esq. the able Prosecuting Attorney, will have charge of it on behalf of the people, will be watched with eager interest. Respectable liquor dealers, we are pleased to learn, do not sympathise with the defendant, as young Mc-Caffrey is well known to the fraternity as a

DR. TUTTS SARSAPARILLA QUEENS DELIGHT

The startling drawback on nearly all medicinal agents has ever been that in their process of purgation and purification they have also debilitated the system. To obviate this difficulty physicians have long sought for an agent that would PURGE, PURIFY AND STRENGTHEN Their research has at last been rewarded by a discovery which fully realizes the fondest desires of the medical faculty, and which is justly regarded as the most important triumph that Pharmacy has ever achieved. This important desideratum is ever achieved. This important desideratum is

Dr. Tutt's Vegetable Liver Pill.

Which purify the blood and remove all corrupt but more and university securalizations from the body, and yet produces no weakness or lassitude whatever, but on the contrary tones the stemach and invigorate the body during the progress of their operation. They unite the heretofore irreconcileable qualities of a Strengthening Purgative and a Purifying Tonic.

Dr. Tutt's Pills are the most active and searching medicine in existence. They at once attack the very root of diseases, and their action is so prompt that in an hour or two after they are taken the patient is aware of their good effects. They may be taken at any time without restraint of diet or occur pation; they produce neither nausea, griping of debility, and as a family medicine have no rival.

Price 25 cents a box. Sold by all Druggists
